PROFESSOR PETER J. ELL, NAMED CHAIRMAN OF THE IBA MOLECULAR MEDICAL ADVISORY BOARD

September 10, 2008

Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium, September 10, 2008 –IBA (Ion Beam Applications S.A.) announces today that its business unit, IBA Molecular, named Professor Peter J. Ell as Chairman of the IBA Molecular Medical Advisory Board.

Professor Peter J. Ell, is Director of the Institute of Nuclear Medicine and Chair of Nuclear Medicine at the University College London Hospital NHS Trust, London UK. He is also a former president of the European Association of Nuclear Medicine. During the most recent annual meeting of the Society of Nuclear Medicine, Peter J. Ell received the 2008 Georg Charles de Hevesy Nuclear Pioneer Award for his contributions to the nuclear medicine profession, which summarizes greatly all he has done up to now in this field.

With Prof Peter J. Ell, the IBA Molecular Medical Advisory Board counts now 8 members including Professors Jean-François Chatal (INSERM University Research Unit, Nantes, France), Peter S. Conti (University of Southern California, Los Angeles, CA, USA), Chaitanya Divgi (University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, PA, USA), William C. Eckelman (University of California, San Diego CA, USA), Max Lonneux (University Clinic Saint Luc, UCL, Brussels, Belgium), Mathew Thakur (Thomas Jefferson University Hospital, Philadelphia, PA, USA), Michael R. Zalutsky (Duke University, NC, USA).

The IBA Medical Advisory board serves as a liaison between the biomedical research community and the IBA governing body. The members of the Medical Advisory Board actively participate in planning and developing the IBA research initiatives and strategies by making informed recommendations to the IBA Board of Directors and other appropriate IBA officials.
